

W.T.C. MEMORIAL. NEW YORK 2004-2005

The project of the memorial for the victims of the twin towers, ground zero, began as a symbolic representation of Death. Three large granite boulders 60 meters tall fit in Ground zero area to classify pain in various stages. And to a processing mourning until the arrival in front of the immense wall of tears, the only Persistence after the attacks.

